

JCBRIDGE.ORG PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your privacy is important to JCBridge.org. This privacy statement provides information about the personal information that JCBridge.org collects, and the ways in which JCBridge.org uses that personal information.

This privacy statement

This privacy statement is based on a Freenetlaw template supplied by Employment Law Contracts.

Personal information collection

JCBridge.org may collect and use the following kinds of personal information:

- Information about your participation in bridge games played at the Jefferson City Bridge Club;
- information about your use of this website;
- information that you provide;
- any other information that you send to JCBridge.org.

Using personal information

JCBridge.org may use your personal information to:

- administer this website;
- enable your access to and use of the website services;
- publish information about you on the website;
- publish the results of bridge games played at the Jefferson City Bridge Club;
- send you marketing communications.

Where JCBridge.org discloses your personal information to its agents or sub-contractors for these purposes, the agent or sub-contractor in question will be obligated to use that personal information in accordance with the terms of this privacy statement.

In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified elsewhere above, JCBridge.org may disclose your personal information to the extent that it is required to do so by law, in connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings, and in order to establish, exercise or defend its legal rights.

Securing your data

JCBridge.org will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.

JCBridge.org will store all the personal information you provide on servers provided by its internet contractor. Currently this contractor is GoDaddy.com.

Cross-border data transfers

Personal information that you submit for publication on the website will be published on the internet and may be available around the world.

You agree to such cross-border transfers of personal information.

Updating this statement

JCBridge.org may update this privacy policy by posting a new version on this website.

You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes.
